Wilmington, Mass. (September 10, 2013) – Villas of Distinction®, the world's premier villa rental company, in partnership with Bermuda Limousine International, an upscale chauffeur service, announced today that it can now arrange high-end transportation services for clients from their front door step to their home airport within the U.S. The service, in addition to transportation services currently offered by the villa rental company, will also be available for clients to book transfers to and from their luxury villa vacation rental.

“We have always offered car service, but this partnership allows us to offer service from our client's front door step to their home airport,” said Steve Lassman, general manager, Villas of Distinction. “We are always looking for ways to expand our luxury vacation service offerings to provide our clients an even more seamless experience when booking their villa vacation.”

Transportation is a key component when booking a villa vacation. Now, villa clients can book their transportation to the airport with a Villas Concierge taking care of all the arrangements. The client never has to reach out to the chauffeur company on their own which helps relieve stress and makes the vacation planning process seamless.

“We have been offering chauffeured transportation needs to high-end clients for more than 72 years,” said Michael Moskowitz, director of business development, for Bermuda Limousine International. “With a focus on the upscale travel market, partnering with a leader in the luxury villa rental market just makes sense. And being able to share our services with new clients is always rewarding because we pride ourselves in offering exceptional chauffeured service.”
